

Gulf Insurance Company organizes Diabetes and Blood Pressure testing drive

Kuwait City, 3rd November 2014 – Gulf Insurance Company, the leading insurance services provider in Kuwait and the Middle East, recently held a diabetes and blood pressure testing drive for its staff and clients. The initiative reflects the company’s ongoing commitment to the social fabric of Kuwait.

Ms Aisha A. Al Asfour, Gulf Insurance Company’s Head of Public Relations Department said, “We are pleased that our latest initiative was successful. The company’s staff was keen on responding to this informative session on such chronic diseases in an effort to creating more awareness on testing and treating diabetes and blood pressure across the local society.”

“Taking an active role in such campaigns is of importance to Gulf Insurance Company. It further represents a model for societal partnerships between state-owned voluntary service organizations, government institutions, and other companies. The humanitarian aspect in particular is the core interest of all participants,” added Al Asfour.

She concluded, “We would like to thank all participants who have contributed to making this campaign a successful one, including staff members and clients.”
